

The proposed system combines LLMs, Dual-Layer RAG, and a Multi-Agent Architecture to support Arabic medical triage and appointment scheduling. By integrating trusted medical knowledge, emergency detection, and specialized agents, the system provides reliable department routing and improves the overall efficiency and safety of the triage process.